Respected Sir,

URGENT - NEET PG 2021 COUNSELLING

Vice President:

Dr HS Chhabra
dhrschhabra@isiconline.com
Indian Spinal Injuries Center,
New Delhi

While the Government of India is making all preparations towards handling any resurgence of COVID-19 from the newer strains, making available adequate trained manpower is of prime importance.

Secretary:

Dr Rahul Guha Biswas

Narayana Health, Kolkata

The inordinate delay of 8 months in conducting counselling of NEET PG for the 2021 batch has resulted in acute shortage of resident doctors across the country. It has in fact caused anxiety among the entire medical profession.

Treasurer & Joint Secretary:

Dr Rishi M Kanna
rishiortho@gmail.com
Ganga Hospital, Coimbatore

Therefore ANBAI requests that the NEET PG counselling should be conducted immediately to enable the fresh batch of resident doctors to join duty at the earliest and thereby strengthen our effort towards optimal control of the ongoing pandemic.

State Representatives:

Dr Saumitra Bharadwaj
Dr Udayan Barua
Prof Dr B Balaraju
Dr Sujit Chatterjee
Dr Arvind Sharma
Dr Geeta Philips
Dr Umesh Y
Dr Amandeep Kaur
Dr Sanwar Agarwal

In this context ANBAI has been communicating with your good offices, stressing on the immediate need for intervention, on many occasions earlier.

We request your most urgent intervention in the matter.

Dr. S. Rajasekaran
President, ANBAI
